Free dubbing facility for...

Lobo also informed that multi-language dubbing facility would be provided this year to the festival delegates, who will be watching films under the Indian Panorama section. "The delegates will be able to watch these films along with dubbing in the preferred language, using their smartphone and earphones," she maintained, informing that IFFI has partnered with "cinetubs" App for the purpose, to be made available free of cost.

Several dubs will be made available through the App, with languages other than the language in which the film is being played in the theatre.

Interacting with media persons on Thursday, Lobo said IFFI Cine-Mela, a celebration of cultural diversity, would be a spectacular addition to the cinematic festivities wherein IFFI attendees and even others such as locals as well as tourists will be registered for IFFI, will be able to enjoy exciting activities while celebrating the magic of cinema, arts, culture, crafts and food.

She further informed that IFFI Cine-Mela will have local self-help groups providing Goan food to the guests, which would be the opening caravan theatres would be moving around and showcasing the locally

More than 270 films will be showcased during the 9-day festival, out of which 198 films will be shown under the International Section. There will be 13 World Premier, 62 Asia Premier and 89 Indian Premier.

This year, the festival organisers have also introduced best Web Series (OTT) Award, aimed at acknowledging, encouraging and honouring the flourishing content and its creators on the OTT platform.

The Masterclass and In Conversation sessions will be participated by eminent filmmakers, cinematographers and actors. Michael Douglas, Brendan Galvin, Brilante Mendonga, Sunny Deol, Ran Mukerjee, Vidya Balan, John Godwin, Vijay Sethupathi, Sara Ali Khan, Pankaj Tripathi, Nawazuddin Siddiqui, Kay Kay Menon, Karan Johar, Madhur Bhandarkar, Manoj Bajpayee, Kartiki Gonsalves, Vijay Kapoor, Alia Aravind, Theodore Gluck and Gulshan Grover among others will enthral audiences by sharing their thoughts and experiences in the world of cinema.

Speaking further, Lobo said that this year there will be open air screenings at the festival locations in Goa, the International Conventional Centre project at Dona Paula is currently put on hold.

"We will be opening the Film Bazaar for public so that people can go around looking at the state pavilions, country pavilions and see the kind of technology they have and what film houses in other states and countries are doing," she noted. It was also informed that all the IFFI venues would be disabled-friendly.

The ESG vice chairperson maintained that there is a major issue of seating arrangement for the delegates, and the ESG has made provision of improved technology to take care of this drawback. "However, we expect the delegates not to wait until the last moment to book their tickets for the films they desire to watch," she added.

Replying to a question, Lobo said the Film City, proposed to come up in the Canacona taluka, has the support of Lollem-Polem community. "We can have a Film City in Goa on the lines of those in Mumbai and Hyderabad," she observed, adding that once the Film City becomes a reality, all film-making facilities in Goa would come under one roof, as also a lot of jobs would be generated.

Answering another question, the ESG deputy stated that the IFFI International Conventional Centre project at Dona Paula is currently put on hold.

Others dignitaries present at the function included Governor P S Sreedharan Pillai, Union Minister of State for Tourism Shripad Naik and Minister for Sports and Youth Affairs Govind Gaude.

LS ethics panel recommends expulsion of Mahua Moitra

The complaint also triggered a political slugfest with both Moitra and Dubey trading charges.

The ethics committee held its first meeting on the matter on October 26 when Dehadrai and Dubey submitted their evidence against Moitra. The Trinamool leader was the next to depose before the committee on November 2, which ended in high-drama with Opposition members storming out of the meeting claiming indecent posters by the chairman to Moitra.

Former secretary general of the Lok Sabha P D T Achary said this is perhaps the first time the Lok Sabha Ethics Committee has recommended the expulsion of an MP.

In 2005, eleven MPs were expelled from the Parliament in another 'cash-for-query' case but those expulsions were recommended by the Rajya Sabha Ethics Committee and a Lok Sabha Inquiry Committee. The proceedings of the 'cash-for-query' issue in 2005 too was a fast-track one with the matter coming to light on December 12 and leading to the expulsion of members on December 23, 2005.

Achary said the Lok Sabha Ethics Committee report will now be sent to Lok Sabha Speaker Om Birla. The Speaker may order that it be published, he said. During the next session of the Parliament, the committee chairman will table the report in the House and thereafter there will be a debate on it, followed by a vote on a government motion for the member's expulsion, Achary said.

The committee had earlier heard Moitra, BJP MP Dubey, who filed the complaint against her, and advocate Jai Anant Dehadrai. Based on information shared by Dehadrai, the BJP MP accused Moitra of asking questions in the Lok Sabha to target the Adani Group and Prime Minister Modi at the behest of businessman Hiranandani in exchange for gifts. Moitra has denied the charge of receiving any pecuniary benefit.

CM announces 4% job quota...

In his speech, Vice President Dhankar expressed hope that India will be the third largest economy by 2030.

Describing 'Amrit Kaal' the period that extends till 2047, marking the centenary of India's Independence, as 'Gaurav Kaal', the Vice President said the world is astonished to see India's achievements in space technology. He made a mention of the historic moment when India became the first country to successfully land Chandrayaan-3 on the south pole of moon.

Dhankar said the national leadership has been instrumental in guiding our athletes and contributing to the nation's bid to host Olympics in 2036. He also appreciated the 'Khelo India' initiative of the government that has led to the opening of stadiums in villages.

Others dignitaries present at the function included Governor P S Sreedharan Pillai, Union Minister of State for Tourism Shripad Naik and Minister for Sports and Youth Affairs Govind Gaude.
